AGREED ORDER

Comes the Kentucky Board of Chiropractic Examiners, hereafter the "Board," by counsel, and Jeffery A. Majewski, D.C., hereafter the "Respondent," and the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. That Respondent placed an advertisement in the Lexington Herald Leader on or about the following dates in 1997: January 27, January 29, January 31, and February 1;
2. That Respondent admits the advertisement was false, misleading, or deceptive, in violation of 201 KAR 21:065;

4. That Respondent admits he failed to send a copy of the written advertisement to the Board simultaneous to publication of the advertisement as required by 201 KAR 21:065, Section 3;
5. That rather than pursue a hearing on these violations, the parties have decided to resolve this matter by means of this Agreed Order.

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that:

- a. The Respondent accepts the reprimand of the Board for the above-stated violations. The Respondent agrees he will act more diligently in the future to insure that all advertising issued by him, or on his behalf, will comply with KRS Chapter 312 and the accompanying regulations;
- b. The Respondent will pay a $500 fine to the Board. Said fine will be made payable to the "Kentucky Board of Chiropractic Examiners." The Agreed Order and fine must be mailed to the Board's office, postmarked no later than July 7, 1997;
- c. The Respondent will run a retraction of the advertisement in the Lexington Herald Leader in the same size as the original advertisement using type no smaller than that used in the original advertisement. Respondent shall submit a copy of the retraction to Frank Hideg D.C., field coordinator to the Board, for approval, before the retraction is submitted to the Lexington Herald Leader for publication;
- d. The Board shall make no referral of this matter for any criminal proceeding;
- e. The Respondent enters into this Agreed Order knowingly, willingly and voluntarily and after having reviewed the due process rights afforded to him under KRS Chapter 312 and the accompanying regulations;
- f. The Respondent understands that by signing this Agreed Order, he has waived his right to a hearing on the allegations, including the right to be present with counsel, to subpoena witnesses and to confront those against him, and the right to appeal the Board's decision as entered in the Agreed Order and the full panoply of rights of hearing and appeal as authorized by statute, regulation and court decision;

- g. This Agreed Order is subject to disclosure under the Kentucky Open Records Act;
- h. The Respondent acknowledges he is ineligible for participation in any chiropractic preceptorship program for five years pursuant to 201 KAR 21:085, Section 2(7);
